RE : ISO Orientation
Date : February 07,2025
REF.NO. : IQA-000-25-2-002

Please be informed that an ISO orientation will be held on Feb 18-19 (2 batch) @ Head Office (AVR) ; Feb 20 Virtual for Service Center and Feb 21 at Cavite Plant @ 8:30 AM. This orientation is essential for all employees to understand the requirements and principles of the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) and its significance for our organization.

The orientation will be conducted by our Quality Management Representative (QMR), Mr. Thaddeus George Roman. He has extensive knowledge and experience in ISO standards and will provide valuable insights during the orientation.

During the orientation, he will cover the following topics :

Introduction to ISO : Understanding the purpose and benefits of ISO certification for our organization.

ISO Standards : An overview of the specific ISO standards that apply to our company and their requirements.

Roles and Responsibilities : Clarifying the roles and responsibilities of employees in maintaining ISO compliance and continuous improvement.

Documentation and Processes : Understanding the importance of documentation and process control in achieving ISO compliance.

Audits and Inspections : Explaining the internal and external audit process and their significance in maintaining ISO certification.

Continuous Improvement : Emphasizing the importance of ongoing improvement efforts and PDCA cycle.

Please find attached list of participants for this orientation session. Attendance is mandatory, as it is crucial for everyone to be aware of our organization's commitment to ISO standards and its impact on our daily work processes.

Please make necessary arrangements to ensure your presence at the orientation. Your active participation and engagement in the session will contribute to our organization successful ISO compliance journey.

Thank you for your cooperation and commitment to maintaining ISO standards within our organization.
