- For those who will be directing to the venue, there will be no expense shouldered from the company. Likewise, all employees confirmed that they want to ride with the provided bus and suddenly changed its preferences are required to inform their colleagues or the committee regarding the sudden change for us to easily monitor every participant status and location.
- Employees who cannot attend because they have work during this day, the company will still provide meal allowance for them.
- Since employees agreed to participate, the committee has no liability for any negligence that may arise from the behavior of the employees, as confirmed by the survey. However, you may still look for the committee if you have other concerns or queries.
- There will be designated areas allotted for all non players. Our committee will gladly assist everyone as we will control a huge number of participants.
